1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Coryea et al, of record.

Element 14 in figs 1 and 2 reads on the graphic user interface and element 18 reads on the context adaptable input device.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2-19 and 21-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over
Coryea et al for the reasons set forth in the Office action mailed 2/19/03.
